

Trevor A. Crow Biography

Trevor A. Crow is an associate at Burns, Figa & Will, P.C., Mr. Crow focuses on complex commercial litigation and advises clients in the areas of business transactions, securities, and estate and tax planning.

Mr. Crow is licensed to practice law in the State of Colorado and the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado. He is a member of the American Bar Association, the Colorado Bar Association, and the Denver Bar Association.

While in law school, Mr. Crow served as senior staff editor for the Denver University Law Review; managing editor of www.TheRacetothetBottom.org, an online journal focused on corporate governance; and executive officer for the Moot Court Board.

Mr. Crow also interned for the Honorable District Court Judge Robert McGahey, clerked for the Honorable District Court Judge Christopher Cross, served as a research assistant and has had work published in the American Bankruptcy Institute Journal.

His volunteer work includes representing taxpayers in tax controversy matters through the Denver University Low Income Tax Clinic as well as volunteer work for the Colorado Lawyers Committee.

Prior to attending law school, Mr. Crow pursued entrepreneurial interests as a restaurant owner.